SOME CHRISTMAS NOTES

Glee Clubs and Bands Serenaded on Saturday Evening.

Christmas Dinner for Convicts—Waikiki Resorts Thronged—Postal and Customs Employees Had to Work.

Rex Hitchcock wants six Christmas days a year.

No less than a half dozen luns were in full blast Christmas eve.
"Tom and Jerry" was free in the Peacock saloons all day Christmas.

Everybody agrees that this was the best Christmas of the past ten years or more.

Jailor Low provided a Christmas dinner for the prisoners at noon Saturday.

There was some shooting for chickens at the Hotel street gallery Saturday night.

Major Wolter of the Occidental hotel entertained a number of friends Christmas eve.

Waikiki resorts were filled on Saturday and business was humming Christmas night.

The man who sent Frank Mc Intyre that doll is in danger of almost any sort of death.

Four Hawaiian glee clubs and the Concordia band were around serenading early Christmas morning.

Passengers by the Peking spent the day looking over the city.
Several wagonette parties were out.

The second watches of all the American warships in port were given shore leave Christmas night.

More bicycles were rented Saturday and Sunday than in any week previous in the history of Honolulu.

A colored bluejacket from the Bennington fell from his horse in Kapiolani park on Saturday afternoon and broke his arm.

All three of the boat races between crews of the Bennington and Baltimore on Christmas day were won by the former.

The National band serenaded the merchants on Fort and King streets Friday evening. Immense crowds followed up the music.

The regular soldiers were given a Christmas feast at noon Saturday. On the American warships, also, special dinners were served.

Q.H. Berrey and Dr. A. C. Wall recorded the "possibles" each on the man target at the Sharpshooters' butts Saturday morning.

Sailors were in a bad humor Saturday night. There were no less than a dozen fights between bluejackets in various parts of town.

It is asserted on the best of authority that Oscar White and Harry Waterhouse each ate six Christmas dinners Saturday afternoon.

A mob of sailors rescued one of their number from the police at Fort and Hotel streets Saturday night. Opinions differ as to the merits of the case.

As so often happens the holiday was spoiled to the clerks in the Postoffice and the Custom house waterfront force. The arrival of the Peking kept them on duty all day.

Considerable complaint is made by the clergy of the city churches of the noisy departure, during the services, made by some people who attended church yesterday merely to hear the music. Some did not wait for either sermon or offertory, but tramped out without regard for the feelings of the congregation, or respect for the place of worship.

For lowest prices, best qualities, polite attention and prompt delivery, try the New Grocery Store, J. Hutchings, 627 Fort street. Tel. 358.

It will pay you to look up what is mentioned by the Oahu Carriage Repository as to their new stock of buggies, phaetons, etc., just received per bkne W. W. Dimond, 613 Fort street, rear of Wright's Carriage Factory.

The Oliver Typewriter is pronounced by experts, the best machine in the world. It has many valuable features, which have to be seen in order to be appreciated.
The Oliver can be seen at the
